Dear Parents and Carers,

Headteacher's Weekly Update

This coming week public exams begin! The first exam is RS on Monday and by the end of the week all students in Year 11 will have sat an exam in English, Maths and Science.

Year 13

For exam specific queries you can contact our Exams Officer, Stephen Weeks, directly via email (using sweeks@emmbrook.wokingham.sch.uk) or, in an emergency, phone reception and they will put you through to him.

Magistrates' Court Mock Trial Competition – Regional Final

Having progressed through the first round with a strong performance, our brilliant Year 9 team will be at the regional final tomorrow in Reading. I am really looking forward to watching them in action and win or lose we can be rightly proud of their dedication and hard work to reach this stage. I will update you next week with the result.

New Canteen 'Pod' Opening

In an extension to the usual service offered by the canteen, we will now be opening a canteen pod located outside the Drama Studio 1 during breaks and lunches. This will stock drinks and snack items (with a full menu still available from the canteen itself). We hope that this will give students more options.

Year 10 Work Experience Next Week

I hope that all of the students on their placements next week have a good introduction to the workplace. It is always an interesting experience for the students and one that leaves some more appreciative of school!

It may be a shock to the system of our students to have to do a full week of school again following the recent bank holidays! We now have two full five-day weeks ahead of the May half-term break.

Have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes,

Nick McSweeney
