Good Afternoon

I hope you have all had a lovely week and are looking forward to the weekend. As you will hopefully be aware, Year 9 are currently in the process of choosing their option subjects ready for Year 10. This week they have had two tutor times dedicated to making this decision and I am writing now to invite you to a virtual options evening next Thursday, 3rd February. This should be a really useful and informative evening that will help you to help your child when making their final decisions for their options subjects.

There will be an introduction to the process from Mr McSweeney, Mr Whitehouse will then explain some of the finer details about exams and the Ebacc. Finally, I will be giving an overview of what subjects are on offer, how the options process will work within school and the help your child will receive from the school in terms of making their decision.

It would be great if you could attend this virtual event, you can do so by joining us on the link below...

Best Wishes
