

June 2022

Dear Emmbrook Parents and Guardians,

The Emmbrook School Colour Run – Monday 18th July for Years 7-10

Tickets for the run will cost £10.00 and students will receive a t-shirt, sunglasses and a drenching of colour powder whilst they complete a Emmbrook School obstacle course around our track.

The event will be fully supervised with tickets strictly limited to 500. Tickets can be bought via the following link:-

<https://www.pta-events.co.uk/theemmbrookschoolpta/index.cfm?event=Shop#.YqegnajMI2w>

If you agree that your son / daughter can take part, payment MUST be made via the above link which, as a parent, you will also confirm that you accept the attached terms and conditions.

Students will not be allowed to re-enter the school after the event but an area will be made available for them to change if required although we are assured that the 'Colour' will not be permanent!

All funds raised will be donated to the The Emmbrook School PTA and we hope that if the event is a success, the run will become part of our annual calendar and a happy memory for many students in future years.

Yours faithfully

Nicky Hopkins

The Emmbrook School Colour Run – Monday 18th July 2022 Terms and Conditions

Thank you for allowing your son/ daughter to take part in this school fundraising event.

By purchasing a ticket you give your unconditional consent to your son/daughter participating in the Colour Run scheduled to take place on the 18th July or an alternative date if so rearranged and confirm that you have read and understood these Terms and Conditions:

1. You confirm that your son/daughter is healthy and fit enough (mentally and physically) to complete the event and that you will inform the school immediately if this changes between the time of ticket purchase and the event, so that your daughter may be withdrawn (in which case a refund will be given).
2. You accept all of the risks of your son/daughter participating in the event including but not limited to any accidents, slips, falls, negligent acts of other participants and you confirm that you understand that participating is a potentially hazardous activity although nothing herein is intended to limit liability for injury resulting from negligence by The Emmbrook School. (The event will be supervised by members of staff and first aiders will be available in case of need.)
3. You accept the risks of any damage to your son/daughters clothing during her participation in this event.
4. The Emmbrook School holds the right to cancel or reschedule the event in its absolute discretion in the event of poor weather or other emergency.
5. The Emmbrook School have the right to remove participants at their absolute discretion if such action is considered necessary for safety reasons or the proper enjoyment of the event by other participants or for other reasonable reason.
6. We expect the same high standards of behaviour during the colour run as with other school events. Students acting in a dangerous or inappropriate manner may be removed from the event and given consequences in line with The Emmbrook School Behaviour Policy.

7. You agree that The Emmbrook School may take photographs and/or videos of your child during the event and may use such images for media use i.e. the school website, twitter or facebook feed and/or local newspapers.
8. You agree that prior to the event purchased tickets cannot be sold or given to other students.
9. Refunds will only be available subject to 2. above or other reason of cancellation the event by The Emmbrook School.
