

Fundraising update

Dear Parents and Guardians

A quick letter to report on the very successful start to fundraising week.

Yesterday, we had the lip sync battle as our opening event and this was very well received by all who were in attendance. The Sixth Form students who took part put their heart and souls into their performance and this created an amazing buzz within the room. The wider Sixth Form student body, helped to make sure this event ran smoothly by taking on various roles such as tech support, door duty and hosting the event. I must also thank the leadership team, who have pulled this event together.

While we haven't finished counting the money raised so far, we believe that we have currently raised in excess of £200 for the Olly Young Foundation.

I look forward to providing you with further updates as to how fundraising week progresses.

Kind regards

Mr Constable
